

2010 Program Topics

All programs will be held at a convenient location in or around the Philadelphia area typically beginning at 8:30 a.m.

$60 Members
$30 Interim Members
$95 Non-members

All programs earn HRCI credits, many earn PA CLE.

Sponsorship opportunities are available for 2009 programs. Contact the PEBA office at 215-735-9435 for information.

PEBA reserves the right to change published dates, speakers, locations or other details without notice.

PEBA

1528 Walnut Street
Suite 420
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Phone: 215-735-9435
Fax: 215-735-9479
Email: coleman@peba.org

Date	Title
January 13	Best Practices for Using Incentives to Promote Employee Health
February 3	Retirement Education: Preparing Your Employees for Retirement Across the Generations
February 25	Measuring the Effectiveness of Incentives
March 16	Strategies for Cost Containment in Employee Benefits: Employer Case Studies
April 7	Non-Qualified Plans: Trends and Audits
May 5	Pay Mix: Maintaining a Competitive Position in an Economic Upturn
May 26	Legislative Update: Health Care Reform Update: Where are we today and where are we going? *
June 24	Plan Dependent Eligibility Audits- Best Practices
September 21	Defined Contribution Plan Investments: Stable Investment Funds
October 12	Compensation in the Non-Profit World: Competing with For-Profit Firms to Attract and Retain Talent
November 2	Fringe Benefits: What do Employees Value and Why?
November 17	Fiduciary and Governance Issues
December 8	Compensating the Globally Mobile

*Program date may be moved based on current legislation
Looking for Introductory-level courses for new employees or to supplement your skill set? Attend PEBA's Boot Camp Series! In 2010, PEBA will be offering three intensive, one-day boot camp programs in each specialty: benefits, compensation, and retirement programs.

Visit www.peba.org for more details!

* Pre-register for 3 programs and save $30! *